

The Toronto North Tactical Training Group: Weekly Professional Classes Open to the General Public

We GUARANTEE that what you will learn in class will be the fastest, most effective and easy to learn self-protection tactics producing IMMEDIATE results that you have EVER learned or your money will be immediately refunded and you receive 1 month of free training. Care to take us up on our challenge?

The Immediate Recall <sup>TM</sup> training platform is currently being taught to international Law Enforcement and Military Special Operations groups, Security, FIRE, EMS and Martial Arts professionals and can be learned by anyone easily regardless of size, strength, gender or athletic background. Ages 12 to 70 years. At its core, no push-ups, punching, kicking, throwing, joint locking or leveraging techniques. Especially applicable for those with physical movement restrictions from injuries or other related limitations. All tactics are put immediately into a professional Use of Force framework teaching the student to understand legal liability and justified force response.

Our focus:

“Immediately embedding a tangible skill set to assess and then safely disengage from essentially almost any form of physical attack.” Control Tactics and Combative skills are then built upon this foundation.
